IMPORTANT REMINDER IF YOU ENTER THE MILITARY

If you leave Covered Service to enter qualified military service, as defined under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), upon your return to employment with a contributing Employer you will be entitled to receive Contributions for the period of time you spent in military service, provided you comply with all Plan and USERRA provisions.

You will be entitled to receive credit for the time you spend in qualified military service as required by USERRA, for up to five years (unless a longer period is required by federal law). You will be treated as working the same number of hours during your qualified military service as the number of hours you would have worked during that period if you were not in qualified military service. If the number of hours you would have received during that period is not reasonably certain, then you will receive hours based on your average number of Hours of Service during the 12-month period immediately before your qualified military service.

To be entitled to receive any Contributions for your time spent in qualified military service, you must comply with all USERRA requirements, including applying for reemployment within the time limits specified by USERRA after your discharge from military service. Your discharge must be for a reason or reasons other than a dishonorable discharge. Contact the Fund Office for more information.

Because the notice requirements under USERRA are very specific, you are encouraged to contact the Fund Office for more detailed information about the USERRA rules as soon as you know you will be entering, or you are considering entering, qualified military service.

The Heroes Earnings Assistance and Relief Tax Act (the "HEART" Act) of 2008 provides protection if you are leaving Covered Service to serve in qualified military service, and either die or become disabled while in qualified military service. The HEART Act requires the Plan to treat you as if you had returned to active employment before dying or becoming disabled. This means that you will receive contributions and credit for the time you spent in qualified military service, in addition to being eligible for the Plan's Pre-Retirement Surviving Spouse benefit. Check with the Fund Office for more details.

Sincerely,

Board of Trustees
NECA-IBEW Memphis Retirement Plan

IMPORTANT REMINDER IF YOU HAVE BEEN DIVORCED

Dear Participants:

As a reminder, any Judgments of Divorce, Marital Settlement Agreements and Qualified Domestic Relations Orders must be submitted to the Fund Office prior to you applying for benefits from the NECA-IBEW Memphis Retirement Plan.

A “Qualified Domestic Relations Order” or “QDRO” is an order, decree or judgment, including a court approved property settlement agreement that relates to the provision of child support, alimony payments or marital property rights and is issued under state domestic relations law. A QDRO recognizes an Alternate Payee's right to receive directly all or a portion of the benefits otherwise payable to you under the Fund. An Alternate Payee can be one of the following: your spouse, former spouse, your child (ren) or other dependent.

A QDRO entered in your divorce or legal separation case should clearly identify this Plan and the benefits assigned, and meet other requirements of federal law. A QDRO may, for example, enforce your support obligations to your minor children, assign to your former spouse a portion of your monthly benefits or lump sum benefit, and/or provide for payment of Surviving Spouse Benefits after your death.

As a reminder, you are required to provide the Fund Office with complete and signed copies of all Judgments or decrees of divorce or legal separation in which you were a party and any QDROs entered in those divorces or legal separation cases at the time you apply for any benefits from the Fund. Failure to provide signed documents could possibly result in a delay in the payment of your benefit. You are encouraged to provide these to the Fund Office as soon as they are entered, and not wait until you apply for benefits, to ensure that any issues that arise can be addressed promptly. In addition to the judgment or decree, you should also provide a complete copy of any separation agreements, property settlement agreements and any similar or related orders in the court's file that relate to the distribution of property, including any attachments or exhibits.

If you have any questions, please contact the Pension Department in the Fund Office toll free at (877) 474-2363.

Sincerely,

Board of Trustees
